NOVEMBER 2016

FROM THE PASTOR

An American poet, e.e. cummings, wrote the following words:

*I thank You God for most
this amazing day:
for the leaping greenly
spirits of trees and a blue true dream of sky;
and for everything which
is natural which is infinite
which is yes
(I who have died am alive
again today,
and this is the sun's birthday; this is the birth day of life and of love and wings: and of the gay great happening
illimitably earth)*

For those of you new to this poet, his funny use (or lack) of punctuation isn't a typo- it's on purpose. As we move toward Stewardship Sunday on November 13, we consider our faith as stemming from gratitude to God: for God's love, for our lives and the people God puts in our paths, and even for the simple blessing of the sun's new birth each and every day.

Thank you for your stewardship of the church; it is certainly helpful for the church to do Christ's ministry here in and beyond Leonia. May your stewardship pledge also bless you and your family; for by making a financial commitment in gratitude, we orient our bodies towards resurrection and get to live that each day God blesses us with the sun's rising.

Thanks can be said in any language. I am thankful today for you, and for the ways I see God at work in your lives.

HOLIDAY FAIR SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 9:30 to 3:00

Our Annual Holiday Fair will be held Saturday, November 19 from 9:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Do you need baked goods for your Thanksgiving holiday or thinking of picking up a special something for those on your gift list? The Fair is the place to fill those needs. We'll have delicious breads, pies, and special treats available for purchase and our craft table offers handmade items to decorate your home or give as gifts. Non-holiday items such as used books and gently used items will also be for sale. As always, we will have many wonderful Tricky Tray baskets for you to take a chance on winning and very special raffle prizes. While shopping, don't forget to stop and enjoy some lunch, which will be served between 11:30 and 1:00, and be sure to purchase some soup or chili to take home.

Much help is needed in order to make this annual event a success. Sign up forms are available in your weekly bulletin, on the Arc, and included here in your newsletter; please consider helping by working at a table the day of the Fair, assisting with lunch preparation, providing baked goods, etc.

Please mark your calendars and come support the Holiday Fair and be sure to tell your friends and neighbors, too!.

Where is the Pastoral Search Process?
How we "Go Forward..."

November 20 we will have a special worship service, and church members will be in charge of the sermon! In small groups, after hearing the scripture you will be asked to talk to each other about God's vision for this church into the future. We will discuss how our church can best serve our Lord and our community, and also who should lead us on that journey. The conversation will continue beyond worship with another meeting in homes; everyone is invited to participate. Church members and regular attendees are assigned to a small group that will meet in the three weeks following our Nov. 20 service for a time of hospitality and visioning, with more specific conversations about our church's mission direction and process of choosing the next installed pastor. Although the groups are assigned and scheduled, there is flexibility to change into a group if your schedule requires a shift. Stay tuned for more info and to find out what group you will be in. For more info see Joe VanDeWeert or a member of Session.

November 13 Baby Shower for Jeff Im and Elin Park

Jeff and Elin are expecting a baby next year! We will shower them with love, food, and gifts following worship. They are registered at Buy Buy Baby (registry number 543913479) if you choose to bring a gift—and they want the church to know they are just thrilled to have the love of their church family.

Thank you from the depths of my heart.” - past recipient of a CFA Thanksgiving Food Package.
