

Christmas Pageant Sunday!

Jazz Jam Saturday Dec. 16

Worship for Sunday, December 17 at 10:30: Christmas Pageant!

Witness our kids as they tell the good news of Jesus' birth, in a script written by our middle school kids. Scriptures will be Isaiah 61:1-4, 8-11 and Luke 1:46b-55.

- Following worship, there is a Congregational Meeting for the purpose of electing Elders and Deacons to the ordained offices of our church. We are still short on Elders serving on Session and can take nominations from the floor.
- The Welcome Corps will hold a small lunch on Sunday, to hear from Alice Mungwa next steps in sponsoring her relatives as they prepare to come to the United States as
- The Alternative Christmas Gift List is ready! Consider giving differently this season, and helping any of the mission partners we support.
- Deacon Linda McGarry asks that you please bring Coffee Cans to church- these are used to distribute the Sunday flowers in pastoral care visits after worship.

In Our Prayers...

Today we pray for Ginny Brown, who returned home after being in the hospital over the weekend. We pray for Joyce Hamlin, who is now in the hospital at Holy Name to be treated for cellulitis in her legs. We pray for Fran, who moved floors in the nursing facility but then caught COVID. We pray for Susheela as she prepares for her mom's memorial service on Thursday. Ammal's service will be Dec. 21 at 11 a.m. If you wish to help, please contact Linda We continue to pray for a cease-fire in Gaza; the Spirit intervenes with sighs too deep for words; these devastating losses are simply too much for a people to bear. Come now, O
