

Welcome the Year of the Dragon!

This Sunday, Feb. 11 at PCL: Lunar New Year Celebration, featuring the Chinese American Family Coalition of Leonia offering Chinese Folk Dance, and Church Musician Chi Yi Chen Wolbrink leading special music, including our Lunar New Year Choir!

It will also be Transfiguration Sunday, so we will hear scripture from 2 Kings 2:1-12 and Mark 9:2-9. There will be a very short sermon, called "You Do Not Stand Alone," and the children will stay for the whole service because there is so much to see and experience. Wear red! It's the color of the Holy Spirit and an auspicious color for the New Year.

Following worship at 10:30, there will be a Lunar New Year Potluck. You can still sign up to bring something, or show up and donate $5 per person/$10 per family to contribute toward the meal and our artists. We also need people to sign up to help clean up afterward

Coming Up at PCL

- Ash Wednesday is coming up on Wednesday, Feb. 14. Come and receive ashes at our 7 pm service, which we have also invited Teaneck and Bethany Presbyterian Churches to attend.
- Since you will be spending Valentine's Day in church receiving ashes, you should bring a date-- or take yourself on a date-- to JAZZ JAM Friday night, Feb. 9 from 8-10 pm. Michael Hinton and the Foreign Exchange band will not disappoint. Intermission with baked goods from
- Our Annual Meeting will be Sunday, Feb. 25 following worship. If you have not yet submitted your committee's report to Pat Major in the church office, she will receive it now with great rejoicing- the sooner, the better: secretaryleonia@gmail.com

In Our Prayers...

Today we hold in our prayers families that are going through big transitions... for those who are experiencing loss... for those whose sorrows go publicly unnamed.

We pray for Fran, Roberta.

We give thanks for the efforts of the Asian Ministry Committee in getting us ready for Lunar

We pray for an agreement to bring a ceasefire in Gaza, and further pathways to a lasting and just peace in Israel and Palestine.
