

Jazz Jam Friday March 8

4th Sunday of Lent March 10

Ease into the weekend with the sounds of jazz filling your soul. Foreign Exchange band, headed by Michael Hinton, presents Jazz Jam Friday night, 8-10 pm. Bring friends and neighbors! There will be an intermission with refreshments so you can mingle with new friends and old.

Sunday we continue the season of Lent with readings from Numbers 21:4-9 and John 3:14-21. Tom Topousis will give a Minute for Mission about the One Great Hour of Sharing Offering which will be received on March 24, to support ministries of the Presbyterian Church (USA) that address natural disasters, food insecurity and hunger, and self-development of people through projects and grants.

We hold Sunday school at 9:30 a.m. for children up through grade 8 and an adult class (teens welcome too) explores the Bible passages for worship that day, meeting in the Fireplace Room at 9:30.

May you continue to have a meaningful Lenten season, with chances for listening, rest, and repair along the way.

With blessing and care,

Leah

We pray for Fran.

We pray for Jane and Philip as they wrap up their final month as Leonia residents and prepare for their new life in Peabody, MA.

We pray for our neighboring churches, Teaneck and Bethany Presbyterian, while they are without a pastor (Teaneck) and without a useable building (Bethany) during this holy season.

We pray for our Muslim neighbors as they prepare to fast and honor their sacred month of Ramadan.

We pray for a ceasefire in Gaza, for safety for all Palestinians and Israelis, and for hope for a peaceful future together.
