

Jazz Jam Friday 4/12 8-10pm
Worship Sunday 10:30 am

Hello from my family's Spring Break vacation in Chicago! We are having a delightful week reconnecting with beloved friends, and we got to see an incredible, total eclipse as we stopped through in Cleveland. I'll be excited to be back in worship on Sunday, April 14. Our scriptures will be Acts 3:12-19 and Luke 24:36b-48, and the sermon will be called "Joyful Disbelief."

Jazz Jam Friday at 8-10 pm will make for a lovely wrap to the week for those of you in town. Michael will have great tunes lined up for you and there is an intermission with tasty treats to eat. Cost is free but a donation of $5 or more per person is welcome!

May you continue to feel the blessings of Easter!

With blessing and care,

Leah

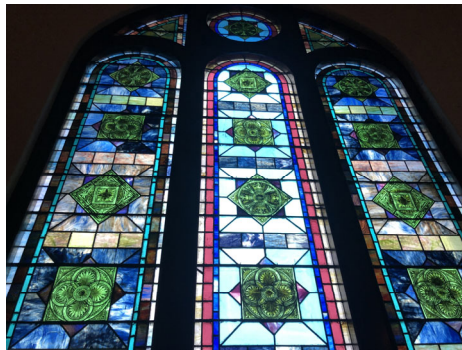

-Rev. Dr. Leah Fowler, Pastor

Art in this email is by Cerazo Barredo, "Breaking the Bread."

Coming Up at PCL

- PCL will feed 225 people through Family Promise Shelter on Sunday, April 28. There are many jobs needed, large and small, to make this meal happen-- and some jobs are perfect for younger children. Please check the Signup Genius to see how you might help. If you sign up to bring the main dish (a casserole), you will be given a recipe to
- Mark your calendars for Jazz Jam, on Friday, April 12 from 8-10 pm. Invite neighbors and friends. The event is free but donations of $5 or more are welcome.

In Our Prayers...

I am away this week so if I miss any important prayer concerns, I hope you are doing a good job of caring for one another, and feel God's care for you!

We pray for our world, for peace in Gaza and in Israel. We pray for the Mungwa family as they still await news on whether their relatives' Welcome Corps application will be accepted.

I give thanks for a good week of rest and friendship and time with my family.