

Trinity Sunday Memorial Day

This Sunday, we celebrate Trinity Sunday. If the concept of God as three in one confuses you, well, this Sunday is for you! We will explore the meaning of the Trinity through the story of Nicodemus, who came to Jesus by night, from John 3:1-17, and we'll also read Isaiah 6:1-8. The sermon will be called "Nic at Night." We will also give remembrance to those who lost their lives serving their country in war. Worship is at 10:30 a.m. and available on our Presbyterian Church in Leonia Facebook Page.

 Please note, there will be no Sunday School this Sunday, but we do plan to have our Children's Sermon and Activity Period at the regular time.

With blessing and care,
Leah

Coming Up at PCL

- Water our young trees! We're looking for volunteers who can water our young trees—there are 6—on our church property during the late spring through early September. They need to be watered twice per week (you may skip with heavy rain) by filling up the gaiter bags at the bottom of the tree trunk. In Our Prayers...

Today we pray in memory of the souls of all who fought and died in wars serving their country. We pray for all who lost loved ones in war. We pray for, and try to live our lives to bring that day when swords become plowshares. Also in our prayers:

- Laura as she finishes her in-patient treatment in Philadelphia and prepares for a next stage, outpatient program.
- We pray for José's sister who had an operation on her ankle today and is now in rehab.
- We pray for those who are struggling, some quietly, with challenges facing the body, mind, or spirit.
- We pray for a plan for moving forward that will cause a ceasefire and a lasting peace for Israel, and for Palestinians in Gaza and the West Bank, with a return of hostages, and a future that is more promising for the coming generation than the last generation.
