

August 11 and Beyond at PCL

This Sunday, August 11, Renée will be on vacation so Carol Crittenden is leading our music, along with Evan Kirby too. It will be a Communion Sunday. Our worship texts include 1 Kings 19:4-8 and Psalm 34:1-8. The sermon will be called "Radiate!"

I am happy to have enjoyed 2 restful weeks of vacation with my family. Thanks to all who held the church together with their attention to building needs, worship leadership, help feeding the hungry of our community, and care for one another as church members. I am looking forward to BollyX with Susheela tonight, and seeing most of you this Sunday!

With blessing and care,

Leah

In Our Prayers...

Today we pray for the cares of our community and for our world.

We pray for those affected by this week's storms, near and far, including Leonia neighbors who experienced flooding, and for storm victims in Florida and the Carolinas.

We pray for a peaceful and engaged election season.

We pray for a peaceful ending to the Olympics, and a joyful start for the Paralympics, and for a spirit of connection across borders these sports may bring.

We pray for Diane, as she continues to heal. We pray for Chris, as her 5-week trip to the Amazon in Brazil begins next week. We pray for those traveling. We pray for Laura and that her transition back home goes smoothly when she returns from Pennsylvania. We pray for Roberta, who recently had a birthday!

May we keep mindful of how near you are, O loving God.
