

Sept. 29, at Presbyterian Church in Leonia!

You won't want to miss worship with the Presbyterian Church in Leonia this Sunday, September 29 at 10:30 a.m. We will be baptizing Faye Yu and her two children, Eli and Esther! They came to our church this summer and quickly felt drawn to Christian teachings and to our church. Come and welcome them into the household of faith! Scriptures will be James 5:13-20 and Mark 9:38-50. The sermon will be called "Prayer, Water, Salt, and Fire." Join us for cake following service as we welcome the newly baptized ones!

Coming Up at PCL

On Sunday, our children and youth meet at 9:30 for Sunday School. Adults wishing to study the sermon scripture text gather at 9:30 in the Tower Room. Choir meets at 9:30 before worship, and also after worship.

Worship is at 10:30 a.m. in the sanctuary and will be livestreamed to our Presbyterian Church in Leonia Facebook Page. The texts for Sunday are Psalm 1 and Mark 9:30-37. The sermon will be called "Want to Save Your Life?"

In Our Prayers...

For the United Nations as world leaders gather, that they may begin the year with intentions for peace, and for Alice's and Venge's work at the UN.

For those experiencing storm damage and flooding in the southeast

For Faye, Eli, and Esther as they prepare for baptism

Pray for a new resident at Oelhaf House.

Pray for Roberta as she recovers in the hospital

For Laura as she continues treatment

For Diane, for strengthening of her breath

For Chris on her good news of winning 2 Emmys Wednesday night

For pathways to peace: In Sudan, in Haiti, in Gaza, Israel, and Lebanon. In the places that don't make the headlines.

God in your mercy, hear our prayers!

With blessing and care,
Leah
