A Word from Pastor Mike

Hey, Friends!

Happy Holiday Weekend! I hope you and your families are enjoying some restful time together this extended weekend. Even as we celebrate the liberties of national freedom, we are aware of the pursuit of a greater, wider, deeper freedom that remains elusive. I hope fireworks, good food, and time together with friends and family remind us all the calling of spiritual freedom in Christ, of a heart given to love and justice.

This Sunday, come and worship with us in the Fireplace Room (the fireplace WON'T be on, but the cool air will be!) at 10:30 am. Thank you to those who have already helped in various ways with providing the meal for Family Promise and to those who will be helping to put the meal together and deliver it after the service on Sunday.

See you soon!

Pastor Mike

Coming Up

Sunday July 6 Family Promise Meal

Following Sunday's service, we will be putting together a simple meal of hot dogs, baked beans, salad, and brownies for Family Promise. Thank you to those who have already given their time and resources to make this happen—and those who will be serving on Sunday in various ways. Check with Vicky to see if there are any volunteer activities/tasks left that you can help out with today, if you are willing.

First Sunday Hikes

NOTE: There will be no hike on July 6 due to the July 4th weekend and Family Promise meal commitment.

Do you have a favorite trail that you like to hike? Or is there a trail you've always wanted to try but haven't? How about sharing that experience with others from church? We're looking for folks to organize hikes on the 1st Sunday of each month (weather permitting—and with the 2nd Sunday as a rain date). Ideas of nearby hikes are on the ark. Sign-up sheet is in the Fireplace Room. If you have questions, contact Cory Lehnbeuter or Pastor Mike.
