Coming Up

All Saints' Sunday, THIS SUNDAY

This coming Sunday is All Saints' Sunday. During the service, the congregation will be invited to come to the front, light a candle, and speak the name of a loved one who has passed away this year. All are welcome to participate in this moment of reflection and remembrance.

Remember to set your clocks back this Saturday night!

Mission Study Congregational Event, THIS SUNDAY

Telling Our Stories. As part of our Mission Study, we will have our first churchwide congregational event this Sunday, November 2nd, following morning worship. Everyone is invited to this time around the tables, centered on creating a timeline of events that have defined our church's story, putting an emphasis on more recent experiences and dates. This will be a meaningful time together as we reflect on what this says not only about our past but our future and how God might be leading us.

There will only be a couple of these churchwide opportunities during the Mission Study process, so please plan to be present if you are able. If you are unable to make it, please send in your key dates and experiences so that we can add them to the master timeline. You can email to Rev. Mike (revmike@leoniapres.org).

Post on our "Reformation Door"

Reformed and always reforming. Last Sunday, we invited worshipers to post guided thoughts on the freestanding door in our sanctuary. This door represents the spirit of the reformers—namely Martin Luther, who boldly nailed his 95 theses to the church door in Wittenberg, Germany in 1517. This was an act to challenge the excesses and injustices of the Roman Catholic Church.

As a church, we're considering the ways God still wants to shape us, reform us, transform us so that we as a community and individuals can carry out the good news of love and justice in the world.

We are leaving the door up for at least another week. Please take a post-it note and write your reforms—perhaps a personal transformation you want to see happen in your life, maybe a reform in the way we do church, or a new ministry you'd like to see get started.
